Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(c) On July 26, 2017, United States Steel Corporation (the “Corporation”) announced the appointment of Mr. Kevin Bradley, age 55, as Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation, effective July 27, 2017. Prior to joining the Corporation, Mr. Bradley served in levels of increasing responsibility at Terex Corporation from 2005-2017. He served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Terex Corporation from 2013-2017, and from 2011-2013, he served as President, Terex Cranes. Prior to his time at Terex, Mr. Bradley served in various positions at GE Capital - Vendor Finance.

The Corporation has not entered into any transactions with Mr. Bradley identified in Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K, other than those related to compensation as an employee of the Corporation, and Mr. Bradley has no familial relationships with executives or directors of the Corporation.

As Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Bradley will receive the following compensation package:

- Base salary of $700,000;
- Annual target award under the Corporation’s annual incentive compensation plan of 100% of base salary;
- Target annual grant under the Corporation’s long-term annual incentive plan of $2,100,000;
- New hire award of $125,000 payable in cash; and
- New hire award of $875,000 in long-term incentive awards for 2017 with the same terms as the executive officer long-term incentive award grants made in February 2017. This award will be made as of August 1, 2017, and is composed of 20% stock options (vesting ratably over three years), 20% restricted stock units (vesting ratably over three years), 30% performance-based restricted stock units (based on total shareholder return over a three-year period) and 30% performance-based cash (based on return on capital employed over a three-year period).

Mr. Bradley was also designated as a Tier I participant under the Corporation’s Change in Control Severance Plan, and will also receive compensation pursuant to certain plans provided by the Corporation, including health and benefit plans and retirement plans typically available to other executive officers. A description of these compensation plans can be found in the Corporation’s proxy statement filed on Schedule 14A with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 14, 2017. These plans are also listed as exhibits to the Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Commission on February 28, 2017.

Mr. Bradley was also provided with certain benefits that are typically provided to newly hired executives, including reasonable relocation expenses, gross-up on the relocation expenses, limited loss on sale of his primary residence, a non-compete agreement, and a severance agreement. The severance agreement, which is described in Mr. Bradley’s offer letter, provides that, if the Corporation terminates his employment for reasons other than for cause within two years and if he is not entitled to any payment under the Change in Control Severance Plan, Mr. Bradley will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to the sum of 12 months of base salary and one year of his target bonus under the Annual Incentive Compensation Program.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On July 26, 2017, the Corporation issued a press release announcing the appointment of Mr. Bradley as Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer effective July 27, 2017. The full text of the press release is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

U. S. STEEL NAMES KEVIN BRADLEY AS EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

PITTSBURGH, July 26, 2017 – Today, United States Steel Corporation (NYSE: X) President and CEO David Burritt announced the appointment of Kevin P. Bradley as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Bradley, who will be based at U. S. Steel's Pittsburgh headquarters, will report to David Burritt and join the company's executive management team.

In this position, he will lead all aspects of the company's financial enterprise, including internal and external reporting, credit, tax and treasury services, investor relations, internal controls and internal audit administrative oversight. He will also assist in developing and implementing the company's strategic initiatives, including their ongoing transformation.

"We are pleased to have Kevin join our executive team here at U. S. Steel. I admire his track record of transformation and history of delivering top-notch results," Burritt said. "Kevin possesses the vast financial knowledge and strong leadership skills necessary to strengthen our balance sheet, help improve our operations and realize improvements in safety, quality, delivery and cost."

Previously, Bradley served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Terex Corporation in Westport, CT. In this role, he was instrumental in the development of the company's internal strategies and led a transformation of the finance function. Prior to his tenure as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, he served as President of Terex Cranes. He began his career with the Terex Corporation as President of Terex Financial Services.

He has over 20 years experience in financial services, including positions with GE Commercial Finance, where he served as Chief Asset Management Officer for the Vendor Financial Services Business Unit, and with AT&T Capital, in several finance and asset management positions.

Bradley holds a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Montclair State University.
